The Baltimore Herald rises to remark that "In England a newspaper is not 'patriotic' that fails to slap the chief of the war office on his official shoulder and admire him extravagantly." In the language of the Heathen Chinee it is "allee samee" on this side of the salt pond.

Mr. Cortez, the Rio Grande Mexican bandit, has been tried in Texas for one murder and been sentenced to fifty years in the penitentiary. He is to be tried for two more. On the same scale this would give him one hundred and fifty years, by which time he will probably conclude to be good and quit killing people.

South Carolina now ranks second as a cotton manufacturing State, surpassed only by Massachusetts. The probabilities are that as South Carolina has reached this place within twenty years, in the next twenty there are at least three Southern States which will lead Massachusetts — South Carolina, North Carolina and Georgia.

THE ORPHANS COMING

Children of Odd Fellows' Home at Goldsboro Expected Here Next Week.

ON THEIR ANNUAL OUTING.

Committee From Local Lodges Have Perfected All Arrangements for Their Entertainment—Trip to Southport and to Wrightsville.

The half a hundred bright young folks from the Odd Fellows' Orphan Home at Goldsboro, who annually have a week's outing at Wilmington and its seaside resorts as the guest of the Wilmington and Southport lodges, will be here next week and it is very unnecessary to say that each one of the merry group and those who have them in charge will find a warm welcome awaiting them not only by those who "wear the three links" but by all who are endowed with a feeling of human kindness toward these fatherless ones.

The children will be here on the morning of Tuesday, August 13th, and will remain until Saturday. The joint committee of entertainment from the four lodges of Odd Fellows in Wilmington met yesterday afternoon at 6 o'clock and mapped out a programme of the several events that will go to make the children happy during their stay in our midst.

At the station Tuesday morning the party will be met by the committee from the four lodges of this city and a committee from Atlantic Lodge No. 43, of Southport. The steamer Wilmington will meet them at the A. C. L. wharf and with the Southport committee the children will be taken straight through to Southport, where they will be entertained by Atlantic Lodge of that city until Wednesday. They will return to the city at 2:30 P. M. and on Wednesday evening at the Y. M. C. A., the children will give an entertainment for the benefit of the public. Early Thursday morning the party will go to Wrightsville beach and there they will be the guests at dinner of Manager Joe Hinton, of the Seashore Hotel. The return to Wilmington will be on the 6 o'clock train of the same day, and Thursday night, Friday and Friday night, they will be entertained at the homes of the many Odd Fellows in Wilmington. On the 9:30 train Saturday morning, the children will return to Goldsboro and the Star ventures the assertion from experiences of the past that all of them will have had a good time.

The committee of entertainment which is working industriously for the pleasure of the orphans is as follows:

Cape Fear Lodge, No. 2.—M. W. Jacobi, L. L. Boon, W. H. Yopp.

Orion Lodge, No. 67.—H. O. Craig, B. R. Penny, Wm. Simpson.

Wilmington Lodge, No. 139.—W. W. Roberts, C. C. Chadbourn, J. R. Turrentine, Jr.

Hanover Lodge, No. 145.—N. F. Parker, J. E. Wood, S. G. Hall.

Mr. M. W. Jacobi is chairman of the committee and Mr. John E. Wood secretary.

The Atlanta Excursion.

The excursion from Atlanta under the auspices of the Carpenters' and Joiners' Union reached Wrightsville beach yesterday morning about 9:30 o'clock. There are about 200 persons in the party and all of them spent the day delightfully by the sea. Most of them came up to the city last night and will go down to Carolina Beach and Southport on the several boats to-day. They will return to-morrow night. Mr. W. B. Clements, travelling passenger agent, and Mr. E. E. Winters, trainmaster, were aboard the train and gave the excursionists every attention possible.

Lawn Fete To-morrow.

Many young people of the city are anticipating with pleasure the lawn fete to be given to-morrow afternoon and evening by the young lady friends of the Y. M. C. A., for the benefit of the fund to equip the new parlors in the building. It will be on the lawn of the First Presbyterian church and many attractions will be offered. Children will be admitted from 5 to 7 P. M., and the evening festivities will begin at 8 o'clock.

City Subscribers.

City subscribers are earnestly requested to report promptly at the Star office every failure of the carriers to deliver their papers. In all such cases steps will be taken to insure prompt and regular delivery.

TARTARS DEFEATED THE TURTLES.

Bryan Got Victory From Kelly—Matinee Idol Put Out of the Game.

[Special Star Telegram.]

TARBORO, N. C., Aug. 3.—Tarboro won a pretty game from the Turtles to-day. Both slab artists pitched fine ball. The visitors were unable to take advantage of Kelley's two base hit, even after he had been advanced to third, for it was there the King was caught napping. The features were Alz's and Kelley's batting for the Turtles and that of Martin for the home team. Hennegar's one hand stop of Martin's hot grounder was phenomenal.

Strenuous kicking by the visitors resulted in Stanley's expulsion from the game. The score:

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	R	H	E
Raleigh	0	0	0	1	0	0	1	0	2	2	2	2
Tarboro	1	0	1	0	0	0	0	*	—	3	3	3

Batteries: Stocksdale and Curran; Bush and Lehman. Umpire, Mr. Weeks.

A Mid-Week Excursion.

It is a charitable and commendable offer that Capt. W. A. Sanders, of the steamer Compton, makes in connection with his mid-week family excursion to Southport next Wednesday. The offer is to provide all the inmates of the Home with a free ticket, and it is certain that many of them will avail themselves of the Captain's kindness. The Hotel Brunswick will be thrown open for use of the excursionists, with its broad verandas and tables upon which to spread lunch. Particulars may be had of the trip by reference to the advertising columns.

Excursions To-day.

The usual splendid facilities for spending Sunday at Southport will be offered on the steamer Wilmington again to-day and with the continued torrid weather it is safe to predict that the boats will be crowded. The Wilmington will leave for the first trip at 9:45 A. M., and for the second at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon. The fare for the round trip—70 miles of delightful sea breeze—will be only 25 cents on either boat. Many of the Atlanta excursionists, who arrived yesterday, will be on each boat.

Funeral of Mr. Howard.

The funeral of the late Mr. Thos. W. Howard, whose death was noted in yesterday's Star, will be held this morning at 9:30 o'clock from the late residence, No. 110½ Market street, and the interment will be in Bellevue cemetery. At the night service, the musical programme will be rendered by the old choir: Mrs. W. L. Lotta, soprano; Mrs. E. G. Woody, alto; Mr. C. V. Motte, tenor, and Mr. H. K. Holden, bass.

Mid-Week Excursion.

On steamer Compton to Southport Wednesday, Aug. 7th. Boat leaves her wharf 9:30, returning leaves Southport 4:15 P. M., reaching city 6:30. Fare for round trip 25 cents. Go and take your children and enjoy a pleasant day's outing with very little expense.

A DOUBLE-HEADER.

Wilmington Champions Took Both Games From Charlotte Hornets Yesterday.

NOW SECOND IN LEAGUE.

The First Was a Shut-Out and Second Was a Walk-Over—Hopkins, New Pitcher, is Here—Tarboro Defeated Raleigh—McGinnis' Work.

YESTERDAY'S GAMES.

Wilmington, 3; Charlotte, 0—1st game.
Wilmington, 10; Charlotte, 3—2d game.
Raleigh, 2; Tarboro, 3.

WHERE THEY PLAY TO-MORROW.

Wilmington at Tarboro.
Charlotte at Raleigh.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS.

	Won.	Lost.	Per cent.
Raleigh	14	9	.608
Wilmington	11	12	.478
Charlotte	11	13	.458
Tarboro	10	12	.454

The Champions took both ends of the double-header with Charlotte yesterday and crimped in the edges so nicely that the countenance of Capt. Clark, of the Hornets, presented a woe-begone expression as he left the field late in the evening. In other words, he looked like a thirty-cent piece.

The story is briefly told. One was what the Horse Editor laconically calls a "shet out;" the second is defined in the lexicon of that worthy "high-muckety-te-muck" as a "walk-over." The first score was three to nothing, with an accent on the nothing, and the second was ten to two, with apologies to the two. Stewart and Bass were the opposing slab artists in the first and Sweeney and "Buck" Hooker-hit-hard were the cynosures in the second paralyzer. The local "professors" came off with the honors and had almost perfect support of the team, while the gentlemen hailing from the Independence City were pounded pretty hard.

The opening game was called at 2:40 o'clock and it was pretty much a pitcher's battle until the fourth inning when the Champions scored the only three runs of the game. Devlin and Warren both led off with beautiful singles but the latter was caught at second. McGinnis, who distinguished himself throughout both games and had the grand stand making goo-goo eyes at him, was next up. The Old-Reliable Beware-of-Imitations followed up the singles with a beauty three-base hit that cleared the bases. He was later scored by a dandy two-base hit by Frost, Allen having gone out from pitcher in the meantime. Frost came home on a single by Cranston and a more crushing "shet out" was saved by Stewart, who fouled to third after Willig had walked.

It was pretty much "one-two-three and you're out" until the Hornets were retired in the ninth and Charlotte money had been transfered to Wilmington trouser pockets.

The second game was a slugging match so far as Hooker is concerned. He is pitched almost every day by Capt. Clark but that does not alter the result. Sweeney went in the box for the locals and pitched a magnificent game. Before he steadied down, however, the Hornets tallied one on a pass to Bigbie and singles by Drauby and Knau. The locals could do nothing in their half and both teams blanked in the second.

The locals made it two to the good in the third. Clayton singled and was sacrificed by Devlin; Warren flew to centre and McGinnis got free transportation. Capt. Allen, was hit and Frost sent "Mack" and Clayton across the rubber on a beautiful single. Cranston was out, second to first.

The Hornets tied the score in the fourth on a two base hit by Gates, a hit-out by Clark and a long fly of Bass to centre. Swander singled to centre and Weaver flew to centre.

It was Bigbie, Knau and Drauby for the Hornets and the Champions made it two the lead in their half. Devlin was hit and Warren went to the high brush in centre; McGinnis singled to right and Devlin crossed; Allen fanned and "Jack" F. sent Warren home on a "peach" while Grand Old "Mack" was caught on third. Cranston flew to left.

With two large horizontals to the good, the Champions had a merry go-round in the sixth and when the grand stand and bleachers had recovered from overjoy, six more runs had been added. Willig drew four balls and got third on Sweeney's single to centre and Frost for Sweeney stole second, Clayton fanned and Devlin scored Willig on a hit to second; Warren singled to right and the Frost-Sweeeey combination crossed the rubber. McGinnis went to centre, scoring Devlin, "Mack" got second on centre-fielder's error; Allen hit to short and Warren scored on catcher's error. Frost up and Allen stole second; Frost flew to right and McGinnis scored; Cranston hit for two bases to right, scoring Allen, but on attempt to stretch his drive, he was thrown out at third.

This week the Giants go to Tarboro for three games and then return home for three games with the esteemed Turtles.

Figures never lie and the perhaps over-drawn picture above by the exuberant reporter may be corroborated or contradicted below:

Our Baking Powder Made the Giants Rise.

— Our sympathies to Kaptain Klark. May he have better luck in Raleigh.

— The grand old center-fielder was in fine trim both at the bat and in the field.

— Stewart struck out eight men and Bass 1, Sweeney struck out 7 and Hooker 4.

— What's the matter with Komical King Kelly's derrick now? Slipped another cog?

— Sweeney got back to his old form and pitched a game that made his friends feel proud.

—Frost, Warren, Clayton—oh! well, the whole "fix" did so well that it is useless to go into details.

— There was not a man on the Wilmington nine who did not do his part in winning the double victory.

— Our konfounded kompliments to Komical King Kelly. May his shadow never grow less nor his percentage grow more.

— It was just impossible for the Hornets to handle some of those grassburners fired from the bats of the Giants.

— The playing of the Turtles is becoming almost as bad as Bucolic Billy Boylan's poetry. Really, they are getting awful slow.

— Hooker has pitched more than the equivalent of three full games this week and was, consequently, not at his best yesterday.

— The V. P. says all doubts have been removed and he is now certain that the game yesterday was a diabolical "shet-out" for the Hornets.

— The genial snake editor of the Post will please make a note of the fact that our derrick is working smoothly and now has power enough to lift Giants.

— Umpire Mace is to have a team next year, and is already "spotting" his players. His experience will enable him to make up a strong combination of players.

— The Giants leave Monday for the game at Tarboro. Umpire Mace, who has "cords of friends" here for his manly decisions and impartial rulings on the ball field, will accompany them.

— Charlotte News: "The sting of the Hornets is getting where the Lobsters don't like it. How are they to help it?" Haven't they already helped it by beating you fellows three straight games? Please prepay reply.

— Possibly, the D. D. of the N. and O. will now think there is some "riz" in the horse editor's baking powder. By the way, wouldn't you like to have some of our brand? You may need it Monday.

— "According to the dictionary," says the D. D. of the N. and O., "a 'Lobster' is a macrurous crustacean with large and unequal claws." "We thank, thee, Jew, for that word." According to Worcester, a Loggerhead is "a blockhead; a thickskull; a dolt."

— There is one characteristic of the Giants that is worthy of all commendation. They pay what they owe promptly. Thursday they borrowed a 3 to 0 "shet-out" from Charlotte and yesterday they handed it back to Kaptain Klark with "thanks, awfully."

— Hopkins, the new "twister," came in last night from Bedford City. He has all the elements of a ball player in his make-up, a muscle of steel, and stands something over six feet in his boots. Manager Cowan will give him a trial in the first game at Tarboro Monday.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

SUNDAY MORNING, AUGUST 4.

HOW CAN IT BE DEFENDED?

An attempt has been made by the beneficiaries of protection and the Republican leaders, who speak for them, to bluff Representative Babcock, of Wisconsin, and prevent him from introducing his bill at the next meeting of Congress for the reduction of the tariff on articles which can be made as cheaply in this country as they can be in other countries. So far they have not succeeded, for he says he is determined to introduce and push that bill, for a protective duty on articles which do not need protection is not only indefensible, but in opposition to the very principle which underlies protection--which should protect not only the manufacturer and other producer, but the consumer also In this latter statement seems to have hit on an original idea, for this is the first time we have ever heard of the protective tariff protecting the consumer.

While contending that the duties should be reduced where it has been demonstrated that the protected articles are made as cheaply in this country as they can be abroad, he declares that he adheres as strongly to the doctrine of protection as ever, and would not touch the tariff on any article where there may be any doubt of the ability of our manufacturers or other producers to successfully compete with the manufacturers or producers of those articles in other countries. He would still give them the benefit of protection. Nor does he propose to repeal the protective duties on articles controlled by trusts unless it appears that the trusts can and do make those articles as cheaply as they are made abroad. He has no hostility to trusts and is not fighting them only in so far as they are receiving the benefit of the protection which they do not need, and the only result of which is to give them a monopoly of the home market and enable them to extort from the home purchaser while selling cheaply to the foreign purchaser. Such a tariff as that, he says, cannot be defended.

As all Republicans do, he assumes that the great progress this country has made lately in manufacturing is the result of the protective policy. There is some truth in this, perhaps, because the protection given was practically a bounty on home manufactures, the very thing that Secretary Gage objects to in other governments and is the ground of justification on which he bases his countervailing sugar and oil duties against Russia and his countervailing duties on sugar against Italy, although Italy doesn't make any sugar for export. Mr. Babcock proposes to strike at the trusts only when they strike at the people and take advantage of the prohibitive effect of the protective tariff to extort unreasonable profits from the American consumer while selling at a much smaller profit to foreigners. After assuming that the protective policy has built up our industries, until we have reached the point not only of being independent of other nations, but exporters of things that not many years ago we imported, he in a letter to a friend thus defends his position:

"After we have builded so well, and many of these industries have become giants such as the world has never before known, shall we continue a tariff on articles that yield no revenue, need no protection, and that, in fact, like the products of our farms, are articles of export? How can such a policy be defended? If Congress maintains a tariff on such articles, the whole theory of protection falls to the ground and it simply inures to the benefit of those who may secure the control of any such commodity, since by its aid they can fix exorbitant prices in the domestic market. I maintain that it is a part of the policy of protection to protect the consumers. This is perhaps the only thing that Congress can do at the present time. I would not touch a schedule where the tariff was needed to protect labor.

"The only answer that has been so far made to my proposition to place certain articles of iron and steel on the free list is that it would injure small manufacturers and would benefit the trust. This statement has been made by S. E. Payne, chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, and by John Dalzell, who is second on the committee. I have great regard for both of these able gentlemen and due respect for their opinions, but as a business man I realize that the small manufacturer must produce his goods as cheaply as the larger one. It is a settled, fixed rule of trade that if one concern cannot produce equally with another it must go out of business. Therefore I cannot see the force of the argument used by my distinguished colleagues, but it is to be remarked that the trust is rapidly buying up the smaller concerns, owning now about seventy-five per cent. of all in producing capacity, and will no doubt secure absolute control of practically all in the near future. The Pennsylvania Railroad Company, realizing the conditions, has just purchased one of the large Pennsylvania steel plants, presumably so that it might be in a position to protect itself and make its own rails. Would they for a moment enter into this new field, which is foreign to their business as common carriers, unless they considered the danger of exorbitant prices for steel rails imminent."

This is good argument with any one who does not look through the spectacles of trusts and other protection benficiaries, not one of whom will admit that protection is not necessary. Mr. Babcock himself, while recognizing the imposition on the American people, indulges in that old fake about "protecting American labor," when he says he would not deprive it of protection; when any one who has studied the tariff question knows that the difference between the cost of labor in this country and in European countries is so insignificent as to really constitute no factor in the cost of manufacturing, especially when the advantages the American manufacturer has are taken into consideraion, while it is contended by many familiar with these matters that considering the character and the amount of work done by the American workman his labor costs less than the labor of the European workman does. But that is simply a tub thrown to the American workman by Mr. Babcock to make him believe that the Republican tariff builders have been and still are looking out for his interests.

Mr. Babcock differs very much from Senator Hanna and other friends of the protected interests, but he has the logical position and when put to the test they will find it impossible to give a plausible reason why this protective policy should not be modified to meet the conditions as they are to-day, when the infants are not only fully grown, but are standing up and defiantly challenging the world.

The protection given to industries that can compete with other countries, with all their "cheap pauper labor," is not protection, it is simply another name for a system that encourages extortion and plunder, for the benefit of Republican campaign contributors.

FIGHTING THE WHITE MAN WITH THE NEGRO.

A Cleveland, Ohio, press dispatch published yesterday, announces that the U. S. Steel Corporation had entered upon a systematic plan for the importation of Southern negroes to take the places of the white strikers in its mills. It has negroes employed in drumming up these negroes and has given orders to secure as many as possible and center them at various points where the strike is on.

This is something which affects not only the strikers but also the iron industry of the South, for these agents are sent to Alabama, Tennessee and other iron-producing and manufacturing sections of the South to find men who know something about that business, and induce them to leave by the offer of higher wages than they are receiving. If they take as many negroes as they hope to, of course this will have its effect on the iron industry of this section, which will be hampered by the loss of this labor, unless it can retain it by increasing wages to the amount offered by the Northern Steel Combine, which might be a heavy tax on it.

But this is not the worst feature of it, for this importaion of negroes (if not a bluff to break the strike) will in all probability result in collision, riot, and bloodshed, which it was hoped would be avoided, and the importers of the negroes know it. It can't be said in reply that the imported are men looking for work, as one Republican organ puts it, and that the plants needing labor have a right to employ them, (which is true.) They are not men seeking work. On the contrary they are sought by agents of the combine and enticed away from the work they have, with which they were very well satisfied before these emissaries went amongst them.

The fact is the U. S. Steel Corporation is forcing the fight against the strikers, at the risk of riot and bloodshed, using the Southern negro to fight the Northern white man, to get him down and keep him down. The negro is figuring in something more than politics these days, and very much to his own ultimate harm.

HOBSON'S BIG JOB.

Captain Hobson is achieving some fame these days as a public speaker and well he may for he is about as strenuous a talker as he is a ship sinker. No narrow Utica contracts his powers but the whole boundless universe is his. There is nothing small about him, or the job he maps out for the United States. He can give Teddy Roosevelt two or three in the game and beat him on strenuosity.

Friday he delivered an address before an educational assembly at Manona Lake, near Madison, Wisconsin. It was a plea for a great navy, not only one to match any other navy but to buck up against an aggregation of them. Every Congress, he said, should appropriate $25,000,000 to build more war ships. How long the appropriation of $25,000,000 annually is to continue he didn't say but the presumption is until we have a navy that would make any other navy in the world look like a measly thing afloat.

The reason for this, according to boomer Hobson, is because this nation is the "natural protector of weaker nations" (as illustrated in the Philippines) and "the principle of the Monroe Doctrine and the blessings of free institutions should be extended throughout the world." To do this we must have a great fleet in the Orient and another great fleet in the Occident, both of which should be capable of bucking up against any European fleet or combination of fleets.

Isn't this a pretty large-sized job that Captain Hobson is putting up for Uncle Samuel? If European nations ceased building ships and let their navies stand as they are it would take the United States considerable time to catch up on the Hobson programme even with the expenditure of $25,000,000 a year, but as all the leading European nations are adding to their war fleets annually, we would have to do some mighty hustling to make much progress in equalizing the numbers, even by the time that Captain Hobson's hair had turned white, his blood much cooler and his brain better poised than it is now.

We appreciate the pride he takes in his profession, but we can't help thinking that the job he maps out for Uncle Sam is rather large even for a person of his enthusiastic and impulsive temperament.

When Mr. Kennon, the writer and lecturer, arrived in St. Petersburg from Denmark, last Thursday, a policeman waited on him and politely informed him that he must get outside of Russia within twenty-four hours. The Russians had doubtless read some of George's lectures on Siberia and wanted to let him know how they appreciated the pictures he drew of Russian barbarity.

—— A marked subsidence in the wave of industrial expansion abroad is reflected in the decrease in June last of exports of iron, steel and copper. As compared with June of last year, the shrinkage in these items foots up $6,783,000 in a total reduction of $7,322,000. Taking the entire Government year ended June 30, the decrease in manufactured exports is $23,342,000, and of this amount iron, steel, copper and cotton contribute no less than $22,782,000. The decrease in cotton manufactured exports was due wholly to the disturbances in China; but in the other branches named the falling off in demand has been heavy and general in every foreign market. —Philadelphia Record, Dem.

HER ANSWER.

MADELINE K. VAN PELT.

They were old friends, but they hadn't met
In many, many years,
And the tide of life had hurried on,
With its joys and hopes and fears;
But both the women had met at last—
Old playmates once again;
They talked of girlho d's dreams, now past—
Its buoyant hopes, now slain.

"Ah, Kate," said Madge, "you're not the same—
You've lost your charm of face—
You've lost your pretty rosy cheeks—
You've lost your form of grace.
Your chestnut hair has turned to gray,
Your lips have lost their red;
All things are changed—and soon our day
Will turn to night instead."

"Dear one," Kate said, "I've nothing lost,
For here's my hair of brown
On Prue's dear head—my eldest born—
And Bess has not a frown
On her sweet face, that's just like mine
Of thirty years agone—
While Kittie's blue eyes dance and shine
Like sunlight in the morn.

"Mine shone in just the self-same way
When you, dear, saw me last.
And Margaret's lips are just as red
As mine in days long past,
No, no, my dear, I've nothing lost,
My life is on the wane;
My children have my own youth cost—
In them I live again!"

The Chief Justice of Samoa Says Peruna Is the Very Best Catarrh Cure.

Court Room Scene where Judge Chambers maintained the Supremacy of the United States in Samoa.

In a recent letter to The Peruna Medicine Co., Chief Justice Chambers says the following of Peruna:

"I have tried one bottle of Peruna, and I can truthfully say it is one of the best tonics I ever used, and I take pleasure in recommending it to all sufferers who are in need of a good medicine. I can recommend it as one of the very best remedies for catarrh.

W. L. Chambers.

A tonic is a medicine that gives tone to some part of the system. There are different kinds of tonics, but the tonic most needed in this country, where catarrh is so prevalent, is a tonic that operates on the mucous membranes.

Peruna is a tonic to the mucous membranes of the whole body. It gives tone to the capillary circulation which constitutes these delicate membranes.

Hon. J. E. Macias, recent postmaster at Porto Rico, in a letter from 1417 K street, N. W., Washington, D. C. says: "As a native born Cuban, serving as postmaster in Porto Rico, I contracted yellow fever and have been suffering from the ill effects of that dreadful disease since my return home. I was advised by a friend to use Peruna and I can speak in the highest terms of your remarkable medicine. I feel like a new man and shall take pleasure in recommending it to those similarly afflicted. It is a fine tonic, and is in every way a wonderful medicine. Peruna has become of national importance.

It has the record of the greatest catarrh remedy of the age."

Peruna is a specific in its operation upon the mucous membrane. It is a tonic that strikes at the root of all catarrhal affections. It gives tone to the minute blood vessels and the terminal nerve fibres. Catarrh cannot exist long where Peruna is used intelligently. Peruna seeks out catarrh in all the hidden parts of the body.

Address the Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, O., for a free catarrh book.

— Smithfield Herald: The Smithfield Cotton Mills are now ready to begin operation. The force of operatives are now arriving and the mill will start up on full time Monday. —— Mr. J. T. Barham, of near town. They have fifteen acres that will average as good as the stalk shown us. The rows which are four feet apart now lap throughout the field. If nothing happens to retard its growth from now on they confidently expect 25 500-pound bales off of the fifteen acres. It is perhaps the best field of cotton in this section of the State.

— Newton Enterprise: The prospects are now very good for a $30,000 furniture factory in Newton. —— The hot weather the last two weeks has made a wonderful change in the cotton fields. Some say the cotton has about caught up, and will start out in August almost on schedule time. —— Policeman P. P. Jones, of Hickory, brought to jail Monday afternoon two negroes, named Ed and Will Watts, for burglarizing the house of Mr. A. D. Hutton. Mr. Hutton discovered Saturday that his house had been entered at the window during his absence North and a great deal of clothing and other things stolen. He met one of the negroes Monday morning with some of the clothes on. He was arrested and confessed that he and his brother were the guilty parties.

— Greensboro Telegram: Mr. Walter Greene, the newly elected keeper of the Greene Hill Cemetery, was in the city this morning and left at the Telegram office a sample of the "Bag Worm," an insect that is destroying all the arbor vitæ trees in the cemetery. The bag worm is a worm whose home is carried about in something of the same fashion in which a terrapin carries his habitation with him. The worm itself is a small bodied creature. The home consists of a small bunch of what at first sight appears to be a dead bunch of the tree itself. But as soon as the worm thinks no one is watching, out comes his head and then follows about an inch of body and the worm is ready for business. After destroying that portion of the tree that he can reach, he crawls along, dragging behind him his abode. Shaking the trees does not cause him to fall off, for the minute he feels a motion he clings tightly to whatever is nearest, and awaits the cessation of the motion.

Male and Female Querrelsers.

Call a girl chick and she smiles; call a woman a hen and she howls. Call a young woman a witch and she is pleased: call an old woman a witch and she is indignant. Call a young girl a kitten and she rather likes it; call a woman a cat and she'll hate you. Women are queer.

If you call a man a gay dog it will flatter him; call him a pup, a hound or a cur, and he will try to alter the map of your face. He doesn't mind being called a bull or a bear, and yet he will object to being mentioned as a calf or a cub. Men are queer.—Prescott (Ills.) Journal

10:30 there was a sharp rally on a turn for covering, prompted by dry weather reports and a forecast for generally fair conditions over the belt to-night and to-morrow. Later the market was feverish, with the room devoting attention to scalping January options. There were outside orders in evidence after the opening and trading gradually simmered down to an indifferent evening-up trade. The English bank holidays deprived the contingent here of news from Liverpool while uncertainty concerning the government report of next Monday prevented enthusiastic operations on either side. Spot cotton was active here and in the South, with exporters as a rule outbidding domestic buyers for desirable grades. Receipts at all points were light as predicted. The market for futures closed quiet and steady with prices net one point higher to four points lower.

SAVAGE BLUEFISH.

THEY OUTRANK THE SHARK AND PIKE IN SHEER CRUELTY.

These Ferocious Marine Butchers Eat Nearly Half Their Own Weight Daily and When Gorged Kill Their Prey For Pure Sport.

The opinions which are current regarding the bluefish are usually formed in one of two ways. A long and pleasant acquaintance may be based on experience at the table. But this, after all, affords only a limited insight into the subject. Again, a man may, with wet and abraded fingers, haul in a five or six pounder until the latter is within a dozen feet of the boat and then see the agile and glistening creature jump out of the water, throw the hook from his mouth and return to the shades of private life. If a line that has a fisherman at one end and a bluefish at the other is not pulled in rapidly enough to stay taut, the consequences just suggested are likely to ensue, and a vivid but exasperating exhibition of a bluefish's pluck and agility will be afforded. After all, though, nothing like a symmetrical and complete estimate of the character of a bluefish can be reached without an intimate knowledge of his private habits.

In spite of the favor with which this beautiful and spirited creature is generally regarded, those who have had a good chance to study him tell awful tales of his ferocity. The pike and shark enjoy rather undesirable reputations in this respect. But a rigid and strictly judicial investigation of the facts warrants a suspicion that the bluefish outranks them both in sheer cruelty. Sharks are greedy and unprincipled enough, heaven knows. But it can at least be said in their behalf that they eat what they kill and are not given to slaughter out of pure "cussedness." The bluefish, on the contrary, slays just for the fun of the thing. When he overtakes a school of menhaden, he attacks one after another in rapid succession. Some of them he swallows whole. Others he merely lacerates. The fact that he had what is poetically called a square meal only 15 minutes before puts no restraint on his murderous propensities. He snaps at the nearest mossbanker, takes a small morsel out of his unfortunate victim and leaves the mangled remains floating in the water for the sea gulls. The latter haunt the neighborhood of a band of marauding bluefish on this account and thus give to the practiced fisherman a free tip regarding the whereabouts of his prey.

The gull is a side issue, though. The main question is the fish and his extraordinary capacity. There is a limit, to be sure, to the capacity of the bluefish's stomach. And when that organ is filled he can't well stow away anything more there. All the same, he goes on playing Herod with the innocents that come within his reach. The finding of remnants of menhaden and other small fish in the water near a school of bluefish has given rise to the notion that, after having eaten all he can accommodate, the latter will disgorge, preparatory to fresh onslaughts. But considerable doubt attaches to the theory. It seems to be merely an inference from the debris found in the water near a school of bluefish. No one reports having witnessed the ejection of food from a fish's mouth.

The number of bluefish taken off the Jersey and Long Island coasts during a single season has been put up by a writer in The Fishing Gazette at 1,000,000 and he makes this only 1 per cent of the total number swarming in the waters. He then expresses the opinion that no less than 2,500,000,000 pounds of menhaden are eaten by bluefish daily, or about 2½ pounds to a bluefish. If these figures are even approximately correct, the bluefish eats from a quarter to half his own weight in the course of 24 hours. It is impossible to find a parallel for this voracity among land carnivora. More than a dozen mossbankers have been found in the stomach of a bluefish. But on the theory that he only ate ten a day during a season of ten days the whole billion bluefish on the coast would get away with an appalling number of menhaden in a season of four months. Such a calculation emphasizes not only the destructiveness of the bluefish, but also the astonishing fecundity of his victims, which can endure that havoc without any apparent diminution.

They do say, however, that the bluefish will seek to avenge himself on his human enemy if the opportunity offers. Not only will he bite fiercely while being removed from a fishhook, but he will actually attack a man in the water. If the following narrative had originated with a fisherman, one might be excused for entertaining misgivings as to its truthfulness, but the narrator is a submarine diver, and whoever knew a submarine diver to depart further than did George Washington from strict facts? So there is no discounting this story. Once upon a time, says the diver, he was entirely submerged and was engaged in adjusting some hoisting apparatus to a sunken wreck. Along came a big bluefish, which, in a spirit of pure devilry, snapped at the man's bare hand. Its teeth came together like the jaws of a railway conductor's punch on a commuter's ticket. The diver tried to withdraw the imprisoned member, but in doing so mangled it sadly. It thus appears that a bluefish does not confine his merciless attentions to mossbankers and such and has no reverence for the gifted creature which stands at the head of the animal creation. A man cannot be too careful, therefore, about controlling the conditions under which he meets this bloodthirsty denizen of the deep.—New York Post.

An Accommodating Clock.

"Do you remember the old time song about grandfather's clock that 'stopped short, never to go again, when the old man died?'" asked a man employed in the clock department of a Chestnut street jewelry store. "Well, there's a family living on South Fifteenth street that has a rather mysterious clock. It used to be on the sitting room mantel, but some time ago it was moved down stairs to the parlor. It had never kept good time, and when changed to its new quarters it refused to go at all. For three months it has been purely ornamental, but one evening last week, while the master of the house was seated in the parlor, he was surprised to hear the clock strike 9. He pulled out his watch and found that it was just exactly 9 o'clock to the fraction of a minute. He got up and wound the clock, and it has been keeping good time ever since. Strange, isn't it, that when it did make up its mind to start it should have started just exactly at the right time?"—Philadelphia Record.

Delinquent Subscribers.

The observing editor of one of our exchanges remarks: "If delinquent subscribers would only pay their bills, as they do almost any of their other expenses, there would be better papers and more prosperous and happy editors. But most people seem to think that the editor gives his services free, and it does not matter to him whether the subscribers pay or not. This is a great mistake. An editor cannot live on soup made of grass and stones flavored with imagination; he cannot wear old shoes and no collar and patches on his trousers. We have not the least doubt that there is a special felicity in store for people in the next world who always respond cheerfully and promptly when their subscriptions are due."

Chinese Olfactory Osculation.

The Chinese consider the European method of kissing a most horrible proceeding, and should there by any chance be a reader of this paper of the same opinion he or she might like to take a lesson from the Mongolian in the art.

The Chinese do not touch each other's lips at all. The nose is brought into light contact with the hand, cheek or forehead, the breath is drawn in through the nostrils, and a slight smacking of the lips brings the kiss to a conclusion.—London Express.

Tidbits That Nourish the Brain.

Blanched almonds are both brain and muscle food, and the man who can include them in his daily bill of fare will to quite an extent keep up his mental force and clearness. Juicy fruits also develop more or less of the higher nerve or brain, but unfortunately they do not agree with every one.—Ladies' Home Journal.

Why Paris Is Beautiful.

It is not altogether easy to say in what the undoubtable charm and importance of Paris among European capitals consists. That it has charm and that it holds a position among European cities altogether unique was recently admitted by, perhaps the most conservative and oldest of British weeklies, The Spectator. In general, it may be said that Britons and Americans especially feel that Paris stands for the beautiful in architecture, the grand and harmonious in its magnificent streets and boulevards, while London, New York and Chicago impress not only the foreigners, but the native born also, with the fact that they are on the whole vast business emporiums, where the beautiful in architecture, the picturesque in adornment and the grand in planning and construction are incidental at best. In the cities named these qualities are seemingly not seriously considered, while in Paris they hold the place of first importance and honor. The grand streets and boulevards that tell of the empire and the genius of Haussmann were intended not so much for business as for imperial splendor and the gayety of nations. And this spirit seems to penetrate the entire city by the Seine.—Chicago News.

A Quick Wink.

The closing of the eye, the rest and the opening of it have been measured and are found to consume three hundred and ninety-five one thousandths of a second. This is a quick wink, and winks have been measured that required forty-one thousandths of a second more time. For these measurements especially arranged photographic apparatus is required, and then when a bit of white paper is placed on the eyelid its motions can be accurately determined. In a quick wink the closing of the eye has been found to require seventy-five one-thousandths of a second, the rest twice as long and the opening one hundred and seventy-one thousandths of a second.

Cold Steel or Death.

"There is but one small chance to save your life and that is through an operation," was the awful prospect set before Mrs. I. B. Hunt, of Lime Ridge, Wis., by her doctor after vainly trying to cure her of a frightful case of stomach trouble and yellow jaundice. He didn't count on the marvellous power of Electric Bitters to cure Stomach and Liver troubles, but she heard of it, took seven bottles, was wholly cured, avoided surgeon's knife, now weighs more and feels better than ever. It's positively guaranteed to cure Stomach, Liver and Kidney troubles and never disappoints. Price 50c R. R. BELLAMY'S Drug Store. j

THE LATEST AS TO NERVES AND STRENGTH

It is not muscle so much as the nerves back of muscle which show one's strength and power of endurance. And the study with able physicians of to-day is how to keep the nerves in perfect health and fitted for the strain of everyday living. Headache of every type, nerve weakness, dyspepsia, sleeplessness, languor, restlessness, nervous dyspepsia, muscular weakness, brain weariness, poor circulation,—a thousand different unpleasant feelings and symptoms are due to nerve waste and nerve weakness,—especially in women and children. But how can all this be prevented, one will ask? How can my broken-down constitution be repaired, and nerve strength and full, robust health be secured. Just two points to remember: Determine that you will grow strong in nerves and health, and decide to use at once that most famous nerve cure, COCELIN. It is delicious in taste, quick in action and makes the wearied nerves tingle with renewed strength and every function the stronger and faculty the brighter by its use. Druggists sell it.

The Morning Star.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

SUNDAY MORNING, AUGUST 4.

A CHINESE PROCLAMATION.

Defining the Relations That Must Exist Between the Magistrates and the Native Christians.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—The State Department has received a copy of a remarkable proclamation issued by Governor Yuan, of Shantung, on June 7th, defining the relations that must exist between the magistrates and the native Christians. The proclamation deals with the subject in language so energetic as to make it evident that the Chinese magistrates will not allow the missionaries to exercise the same influence as heretofore in local affairs or in any other than religious matters in the future.

Governor Yuan states that he has received many reports from Chinese officials that "unworthy members of the church were practicing their religion simply for the protection which it affords them, and were lightly setting aside the law of the land and seeking occasion for quarrel, and that such affairs were daily increasing in number."

He points out that "the missionaries are merely preachers of religion. They have no authority whatever to interfere in the affairs of the Chinese people nor any power to exercise official functions, as everybody ought to know."

Therefore, the Governor enjoins his magistrates to make no distinctions between church and people; to let no one else presume to exercise his authority for controlling the people. Says he: "The most important matter is that justice should be done to both sides. It makes no difference whether the people annoy the Christians or the Christians annoy the people; let there be a clear distinction made between the crooked and the straight, and it will then be impossible that any occasion for interference should arise."

ONE MAN DROWNED.

Party of Bathers Caught in the Undertow at St Augustine—Four Were Rescued.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla., Aug. 3.—Aparty of prominent people from this city were in bathing at South Beachthis afternoon. Five of them, Major J. W. Sackett, J. W. Adams, H. B. Woodard Mrs. Sackett and Miss Florence Wood were caught in the under tow beyond the breakers. By the assistance of a number of people in the surf and on the beach four were rescued, some of them exhausted and unconscious. J. W. Adams was drowned.

The party of five were in a group when the undertow took them off their feet. Calls for help were heard by the bathers but at first no one could reach them. Finally a life line was taken out by an expert swimmer who managed to get it to all. When the strain was put on it the line broke and the party was again taken further out to sea. The line was carried out the second time.

Mr. Woodard, who was by this time utterly exhausted, was pulled out by having the line tied to him. By this time no trace of Mr. Adams could be found as his drowned body had sunk. The drowned man was an Englishman, 40 years of age, and claim clerk in the freight department of the East Florida railroad. His relatives live in New York and Philadelphia.

PROTECTION OF FOREIGNERS.

Regulations for the Mounted Patrol Which the Chinese Propose to Establish in Disturbed Districts.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—The State Department has received through Mr. Squires, secretary of legation at Pekin, a note from Li Hung Chang, describing the regulations for the control of the mounted patrol, which it is proposed to establish along the road between Ching Ting and Pao Ting Fu. Mr. Squires says this is the first step on the part of the Chinese authorities toward the protection of foreigners travelling through the disturbed districts of the provinces of Shan Si and Chih Li. The regulations are quaintly expressed, but in substance they provide for the establishment of military posts at nine stations on the road, the commanders of which are to furnish escorts for travellers. The escort is to keep within twelve feet of the traveller, whose pace must set theirs. It is to disperse people who gather about the traveller and are boisterous, and its members are not to accept any pay from a traveller under pain of dismissal. A post will be forwarded every two days.

TRAGEDY AT TAMPA.

Italian Shot and Killed His Wife—Murderer Gave Himself Up.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star

TAMPA, FLA., Aug. 2.—Antonetto Castellano declared that she was going visiting this afternoon, and Leopoldo Castellano, her husband, told her not to go. She started and when about twenty feet from the house he shot her dead. The murderer fired two shots, both of which took effect in the back of her head and either would have produced death. The shooting occurred on Eighth avenue, in the Italian settlement, both being of that race. Castellano made his escape immediately after the shooting, but at 7 o'clock this afternoon he walked into the police station and said he wanted to give himself up for killing his wife.

STRIKE TROUBLE AT KNOXVILLE.

Mob Violence at Times Seemed Likely to Gain the Upper Hand.

VERY FEW CARS WERE RUN.

Trolleys Were Pulled Off and Torpedoes Placed On the Tracks—A New Conductor Mobbed and Injured. Manager Arrested.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

KNOXVILLE, TENN., Aug. 3.—The street car strikers made a lively day for Knoxville, but evening came without any serious trouble, although at times it seemed as though mob violence would gain the upper hand. What few cars the Traction Company operated were run on schedule, although they were lightly patronized by the public who feared they would be subjected to indignities. Sympathizers with the strikers grew bolder. Switches were interfered with and trolley poles pulled off of the wires, one striker being arrested for that offence.

The last cars coming in, about 6 o'clock, for none were run after dark, were almost mobbed. Trolleys were pulled off, torpedoes placed on the tracks and in one instance the trolley wire was torn loose.

In front of the Imperial hotel, Conductor Tripp, a new man from South Carolina, is said to have kicked a boy who had boarded his car. Tripp was taken off his car by the mob and so badly mistreated that he is suffering from concussion of the brain. Soon after an officer followed by a howling mob went to the Traction Company headquarters to serve a warrant on a motorman. The doors were shut to keep the crowd out and the officer considering this a resistance pushed in the door, the mob following him. General Manager Howell ordered them out and the officer struck at him. Howell retaliated by trying to brain him with a cane. A warrant was sworn out for the general manager and he later gave bond for assault.

EXCITEMENT AT M'KEESPORT

Report That Negroes Are Coming to Take the Places of Strikers—Trouble There is Feared.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

PITTSBURG, August 2.—A report was received in McKeesport to-day to the effect that two car-loads of negroes were coming from Virginia to take the places of strikers at the Demmler plate mill. The strikers called a meeting immediately and appointed a committee of twenty men to go and meet the train at Connellsville and if possible persuade the men to return to Virginia. Great excitement prevails in the town and trouble is feared if the committee is unable to stop the negroes at Connellsville and they should come on through to McKeesport.

Warned to Leave Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 3.—As a result that negroes are brought into the city to supplant white workmen at the Newburg mills of the United States Steel Corporation, the idle plants are now being picketed by members of the Amalgamated Association. Five plants are now idle, the company having recently closed down the 9, 12 and 18-inch mills for the announced purpose of making repairs. The pickets late last night found a dozen colored men asleep near the mills. Upon being aroused the negroes declared they had no intention of going to work. They were advised that their presence might cause trouble and that they had better leave the city at once. The negroes lost no time in getting out of town.

General Strike Will Be Ordered.

It is learned to-night that no time will be lost by the Amalgamated Association in completing its plans for a continuation of the struggle, and a meeting of the executive board will be held at headquarters to morrow for this purpose. It is considered probable by all interested that the strike order will become general, calling out the union men in the National Steel Company, the Federal Steel Company and the National Tube Company. But nothing definite, however, can be known until after the meeting tomorrow. All the workers seen tonight are confident that the order will be issued at once, and expect the response to be general and hearty.

WELL KNOWN SPORTING MAN.

Committed Suicide by Drowning—Despondency Said to be the Cause.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—A well known sporting man, Warren Lewis, of New York, jumped from the steamer Rhode Island, on her trip from New York to Providence last night and was drowned. A boat was sent out, but after half an hour it returned from a fruitless search.

Lewis was one of the most widely known sporting men in America. Besides being associated with John L. Sullivan, he backed Jack Dempsey, "Brooklyn" Jimmy Carroll, Jack McAuliffe and Kid McCoy. He also handled "Jem" Hall, the Australian, when he fought Pritchard, of England.

Of late Lewis had been having a streak of hard luck and several hotels and cafes which he had started were financial failures. This made him despondent.

RAIN IN NEBRASKA.

Claimed to be Result of Firing Gunpowder in the Air.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star

LINCOLN, NEB., Aug. 3.—Lincoln and a greater part of the State have experienced a drop in the temperature of forty-one degrees within the past thirty-eight hours. In the same districts there were intermittent showers during the day and evening, amounting to a heavy fall in the northeast part of the State. For the local precipitation, W. H. Wright, who has been firing gunpowder into the air for forty-eight hours, claims all the credit. He says the rain came in direct opposition to natural conditions and in the face of contrary predictions of the Washington forecaster. He will, he says, continue his efforts, if necessary, on a larger scale.

Hundreds of home seekers who failed to draw claims in the new Kiowa Comanche country, are selling their tents, horses and wagons at a sacrifice in order to reach their homes. Many others who have camped on the borders of the land for months, expecting that it would be opened by a "run," are destitute, and already suffering is apparent.

IT WILL BE A FIGHT TO THE FINISH.

Between the Big Steel Trust and Members of the Amalgamated Association—No Quarter Will be Given.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 3.—"It will be a fight to a finish. No quarter will be given. We are prepared to spend all the money and time necessary to wipe out the Amalgamated Association in all of our mills."

This was the message that came over the wire from New York to local officials of the United States Steel Corporation this afternoon. The officials were waiting long after the usual Saturday afternoon closing hour to get word of the conference in New York between the executive board of the Amalgamated Association and the general officers of the big trust. Two messages came. The first stated that the conference had adjourned between the workers and Mr. Morgan after receiving his ultimate decision in the matter in dispute.

The second message contained the statement also that appears above. Some of the officials heard the message with misgivings; others with unconcealed satisfaction. One of the officials left his office declaring that he was glad of it. The fight would surely be carried to a finish and the corporation would once and for all be freed of the influence of the union men.

At the headquarters of the Amalgamated Association few were about. The only regret heard among the strikers who were about, was that President Shaffer had temporized with the trust officials so long. While the workers are themselves ignorant of the general plans of the officials of the organization regarding the extension of the strike throughout the union mills of the trust, they are confident, however, that the general strike order will be issued in a short time.

That the officials of the United States Steel Corporation have been preparing for this battle was made apparent during this afternoon. It was learned on the best authority that an attempt is to be made at once to break the strike by the importation of non-union men into all the idle mills. One of the officials of the companies now involved said so far as furnishing skilled men for the idle plants was concerned, it is only necessary to distribute the skilled workers in the present non-union mills in all the plants and make them general instructors of green hands to soon develop more of this class of tradesmen.

TRUCK FARMING IN THE U. S.

Report of the Department of Agriculture Reviewing the General Growth of the Industry.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—The Agricultural Department is preparing to publish an exhaustive report by Edward G. Warde, Jr., and Edward S. Holmes, on truck farming and the transportation of fruits and vegetables in the United States. The report covers the following points.

1. A description of the transportation of fruits and vegetables from Southern truck farms to Northern markets.

2. A description of the California fruit industry and the movement of California fruits to interior points and Atlantic seaboard cities.

3. Freight rates and refrigerator charges on perishable products in all important sections of the country.

Reviewing the general growth of these interests the report says:

"Truck farming in the United States has been recognized as a distinct agricultural industry for a period of about forty years. The increasing population of the cities and a consequent demand for a great quantity and larger variety of vegetables at all seasons of the year, the changed conditions and the surplus of labor in the South after the close of the civil war, and the building of many thousands of miles of railway, have given this industry an impetus which has caused it to develop with remarkable activity, and large areas throughout the entire country are now devoted almost exclusively to the growing of what is known as garden truck. This is especially true of all Southern States, where from late Winter until early Autumn thousands and thousands of acres are under cultivation to supply Northern markets with fruits and vegetables, there being hardly a Northern city of any size which is not receiving its out-of-season garden truck. The Southern planter has made new use of his farms.

Many of the improved facilities which have been adopted by the freight departments of our railroads are directly attributable to the handling of perishable agricultural products. Routes have been shortened, through schedules adopted, motive power increased, better refrigeration, speed and quick delivery. Railroads are enabled to place the truck in the Northern markets in as good condition as when it left the Southern farm, even when it necessitates a journey of many hundreds of miles.

Such a thing as a particular season for any kind of vegetable in our principal markets is at this time practically unknown, and it is now possible to draw upon the different sections of the country and receive at any season of the year nearly all the standard varieties of vegetables. In the late Autumn and early Spring, Florida and the Southern States furnish the supply for the Northern markets, until the advancing season (which moves northward at the rate of about fifteen miles a day) matures the crops through the Eastern and central States; these States supply the midsummer markets until the frosts of winter once more compel the return to the South, where a fresh crop is at the command of the market."

SCHLEY COURT OF INQUIRY.

The Third Member to Supply Kimberly's Place Not Yet Selected.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3. — Acting Secretary Hackett had expected to be able to announce the name of the third member of the Schley court of inquiry to-day, but could not do so up to the time the department closed. Nevertheless, it is surmised that he had heard from at least one of the rear admirals he has addressed on the subject and that has communicated the results to Secretary Long and will await his pleasure before making any announcement. Secretary Long has expressly delegated this task of making a selection to acting Secretary Hackett, but as a matter of courtesy it is probable that he would be acquainted with the choice before it is made public. Judge Advocate General Lemly left to-day on his annual vacation to New England to be gone a month, but while away he will keep in touch with the case as far as he can conveniently do so and will be the directing mind should any question arise requiring a legal decision.

NEITHER WOULD CONCEDE A POINT.

Officials of the Big Steel Trust and the Strikers Fail to Reach Agreement.

RENEWAL OF THE STRUGGLE.

Conference of Officials With Officers of the Amalgamated Association—Steel Trusts' Ultimatum—A Counter Proposition by Strikers.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, August 3. — Another effort to perfect a permanent truce between the great army of steel workers and the giant corporation which employs them has failed and to-night the conflicting sides are as sharply and widely divided as ever. The leaders on either side met here again this morning and after a day of fruitless conference and discussion parted in a spirit that shows no tinge of conciliation. Neither side would surrender a position or concede a point in the dispute in which they are involved and present indications point to a renewal with vigor of the struggle.

The first conference of the day was between President Shaffer and twelve of his associates on the executive board of the Amalgamated Association, and a group of officials of the United States Steel Corporation, headed by J. P. Morgan and President Charles M. Schwab At the end of an hour the conferees parted, having failed to reached an agreement. The second conference was participated in only by the officials of the Amalgamated Association. It was a secret session, lasting for over two hours, at the close of which the following statement was given to the press:

"We, the members of the executive board of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers, considering it incumbent upon us to enlighten the public through the press, with reference to the present relations between our association and the United States Steel Corporation, present the following statement:

Steel Trusts' Ultimatum.

"The officials of the United States Steel Corporation, instead of resuming negotiations where they were suspended at the conference held on July 11, 12 and 13, have withdrawn the propositions made at that time and are now offering much less than they agreed to sign for then. The following is the proposition which the United States Steel Corporation gave us to-day as its ultimatum:

"It will be observed that the preamble states simply that the United States Steel Corporation officials will advise settlement by the underlined companies:

"Preamble, conditions under which we are willing to advise a settlement of the labor difficulties:

"'Tin Plate Company—Should proceed under the contract signed with the Amalgamated Association as of July 1st, 1901.

"'American Steel Hoop Company—Company should sign the scale for all the mills owned by the American Steel Hoop Company that were signed for last year.

"'American Sheet Steel Company—Company should sign the scale for all the mills of this company that were signed for last year except the old Meadow mill and the Saltsburg mill.'"

The Strikers' Proposition.

"We desire to preface our proposition by directing attention to the fact that it is a modification of that which was offered originally. At the last conference, as at those preceding it, we required the signature of the scale for all the mills owned and operated by the United States Steel Corporation, while in the proposition given below we ask that the scale be signed for none but those mills which are organized and where the men ceasing to work have signified their desire to be connected with the Amalgamated Association.

"This modification has been made because the trust officials declared that we wished to force men into the organization against their will and desire. We, therefore, asked that the scale be signed for only those men who desire it.

"Now comes the proposition of the Amalgamated Association:

"We, the members of the executive board of the Amalgamated Association, hereby present this proposition as a reply to that received from the steel corporation:

"Sheet mills—All mills signed for last year, with the exception of Saltsburg and Scotdale and with the addition of McKeesport and Wellsville.

"Hoop mills—All mills now known to be organized, viz: Youngstown, Girard, Greenville, Pomeroy, Warren, Lindsay, McCutcheon, Clark, Bar mill, Monessen, Mingo, 12-inch, 9-inch, and hoop mills of the Cleveland rolling mill company.

"Tin Mill—All mills except Monessen.

"Note—All other matters of detail to be left for settlement by conference.

"We furthermore wish to state that our purpose in coming to New York was not because we doubted our president, T. J. Shaffer, and our secretary, John Williams, who have our confidence and endorsement, but in the hope of obtaining a settlement of the strike."

The Conference.

The meeting between the representatives of the strikers and the officials of the Steel Corporation was arranged by telegraph last night and sprang from a mutual desire for peace. President Shaffer and his brother officers of the Amalgamated Association left Pittsburg to-night and reached New York at 8 o'clock this morning. They parted at the ferry to meet again at 10.30 o'clock at the office of the U. S. Steel Corporation, the hour and place appointed for the conference. President Schwab, of the Steel Company, received the representatives of labor and conducted them to the consulting rooms of the directorate. J. P. Morgan came to the conference, accompanied by Robert Bacon, one of his local partners, and C. E. Dawkins, head of the English house of Morgan & Co., D. G. Reed, of the American Tin Plate Company, and other officials of the other companies of the federated general steel corporation also joined the conference, and it was some time after the time first appointed that the conference was formally opened. Mr. Schwab spoke first for the employers and was followed by Mr. Morgan. They declined to make any modification of the terms offered by them just one week ago, when Messrs. Shaffer and Williams journeyed here for the first conference.

Asked More Liberal Terms

Mr. Shaffer and the other men of the Amalgamated Association insisted that more liberal terms be offered to them. There was a general discussion as to the whole proposition involved and each mill, the unionization of which has been disputed, was considered in detail. When either side had fully expressed itself, the steel officials withdrew from the room in order to let the labor representatives confer privately. The latter decided to reject the offer of the steel corporation, and when Mr. Schwab returned to the room so informed him. Mr. Morgan and his two partners withdrew almost at once, and a little later the Amalgamated men took their leave also. The latter went at once to the Stevens House, and after a hasty lunch went into executive session. It was 2 o'clock when their meeting began and 4:15 o'clock when President Shaffer came down into the lobby and announced that they had concluded their work here and would leave at once for their homes. President Shaffer declined to say a word in addition to the formal statement which was given out by Secretary Williams, and his companions were equally reticent.

Shaffer asked that the statement be printed in full, saying that the strikers wished the public to understand their position. Not an intimation of the future policy of the Amalgamated Association in waging the great industrial battle which it faces, could be obtained from any member of the party. Shaffer seemed grave and serious despite the vindication which his companions gave him in their official statement, while the other Amalgamated men seemed in very high spirits. Shaffer paid the bill for the party at the hotel and left, saying he intended to take the first train to Pittsburg.

Immediate Action Expected

When the Amalgamated men left him President Schwab went at once to the office of J. P. Morgan and had a talk with Mr. Bacon. He went home early in the afternoon as did all the other men who represented the corporation in the final debate on the issues which divided them and their men. No statement in behalf of the steel corporation was made and none of its representatives would talk for publication. It is believed here that there will be immediate action from both sides, the expectation being that the steel corporation will attempt the operation of some of its mills independent of the union, and that the Amalgamated Association will call upon those in sympathy with them to strike. If there are no further efforts at conciliation and the strike is extended, it may develop into the largest conflict of the kind in the history of the country. Figures at this time as to the number of men and properties that would be involved are pronounced unreliable by conservative men who know the trade, because many of the claims of strength put forward on either side are disputed and can be tested only in actual conflict.

VENEZUELA-COLOMBIA.

U S Government Will Take No Action to Protect American Interests.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, July 3.—It is stated upon authority to-night that unless the Venezuelan-Colombian imbroglio grows more serious, no measures beyond those already taken will be instituted to protect American interests in that section. For the present at any rate, the government will content itself with maintaining close scrutiny of events. The most recent information leads to the conclusion that the trouble will be short-lived and it is not believed in official circles that American interest are liable to suffer. For this reason, and also because no vessel is available for the purpose, no effort will be made to make any naval demonstration on behalf of the United States in the waters of Venezuela and Colombia.
